The world is now called a global village. We have access to information from every corner of the world. Google Search Engine provides us with thousands of result of a single search with its vast database. Then, we usually download our desired information and using copy and paste facility complete our projects or assignments. In this way, we fall prey to plagiarism. Intellectual property right covers artwork, patent, invention, literary work etc and these works are protected by copyright act. We have tried to focus our E-Workshop on plagiarism i.e. what comes under plagiarism, how to avoid and prevent plagiarism?
